Troutdale Searches for New City Manager

The City Council is currently in the process of selecting a new City Manager. Under the City's Charter, the City Manager is the Chief Executive Officer for the City and is responsible to carry out the directives of the Council. He is one of only three City employees that are hired by and report to the Council. The City Attorney and Municipal Court Judge are the other two.

The search is being led by the Prothman Company, a Seattle-based company that is experienced in conducting nationwide searches for municipal leadership positions. They received initial applications in December, the candidates had first interviews in January and then the City Council reviewed the results. The City Council selected six to go through final interviews. They all met with the community during an event at McMenamins on February 19th. The final interviews, with both the City Council and a panel from the community, occurred on February 20th. The City Council hopes to make a final decision by the middle of March.

The previous City Manager was Craig Ward, who retired on December 31st, 2016. He had served the City since 2010. Currently, Ray Young, the Municipal Court Judge, is serving as Interim City Manager.

Make Our Community Better

Enhancement Grant Opportunities Coming

The new Troutdale Community Enhancement Program will soon begin accepting applications for project grants. The Program has funds available for homeowner associations, City advisory committees, service clubs, schools, and other community non-profit groups, for enhancement projects that will make improvements throughout the City. The mural in Mayors Square was created through a 2016 Community Enhancement grant. Funds are available from a per-ton fee charged by Metro regional government on solid waste transfer stations located in communities throughout the greater Portland region, to help mitigate the impact on the local host community.

Check the City's website in mid-April for complete information and updates, at www.troutdaleoregon.gov.

Hello Troutdale!

A message from newly-elected Troutdale Mayor Casey Ryan

With the New Year brings new hope, opportunity and expectations. As your new Mayor I am excited about what 2017 has in store for our city. Ever since being elected as Mayor I have had many great opportunities to meet and visit with many wonderful Troutdale residents. Six of those Troutdale residents have been the Councilors of our city. I have enjoyed getting to know and build relationships with each individual Councilor. The Councilors all bring unique and diverse backgrounds and experiences to their positions. The passion they bring to our city, and how they spend countless hours with no pay, is something to admire. The job of a Councilor is not easy; you must have a community spirit and a passion to serve. My hat goes off to all six of them for their committed service to our city and it is an honor to serve alongside each and every one.

Another opportunity that I have had is to meet and visit with the employees of our city. Although, I have met just a handful, it has become apparent to me that we are in very good hands. The winter weather has been hard on all of us this year and I appreciate the hard work the city employees have demonstrated to keep our city up and running. When a lot of us did not have to leave the house because of the harsh conditions, the employees of the Public Works Department were busy plowing, sanding and graveling streets. Thank you!

My goal as Mayor is to serve the residents of Troutdale with a positive and "can-do" energy. We are all so fortunate to be able to call Troutdale our home. I hope to be able to highlight the wonderful things our city has to offer and to leave the City better off after my four years of service has come to an end. This can only be accomplished with a City Council that works together as a team moving in a positive direction, the committed service of our volunteer city committees, and the active involvement of the citizens. I want to hear from you. I want to hear about what you love about Troutdale and what we can do collectively to improve the livability for us all. I know we are all busy but I hope we can inspire people to get involved, use your voice and be proud of the city we all call home.

New Faces on the City Council

We welcome newly-elected Mayor Casey Ryan (featured above), Councilor Randy Lauer and Councilor Zach Hudson! Remaining on the Council for a third term is Councilor Glenn White who was re-elected to Position 4. Joining them on the Council are current members Dave Ripma, City Council President (Position 1), Larry Morgan (Position 3), and Rich Allen (Position 5). # KNOW THE CODE! Keep Your Sidewalks Clear, Control the Weeds, and Trim those Limbs

By Lisa Clayton, Code Enforcement Officer

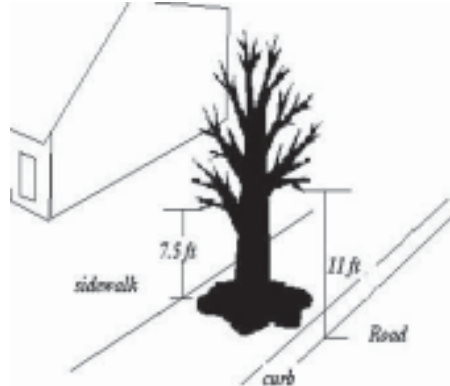

Lisa Clayton was hired as Troutdale's Code Enforcement Officer in April 2016. Prior to that, she worked for the Portland Police Bureau for 29 years in uniform patrol, Gang Enforcement, and narcotics.

Code enforcement is a strategy that helps maintain our high standard of livability in Troutdale. And there is a correlation between maintaining these high standards and the crime rate. The Troutdale Municipal Code includes several ordinances that exist to help neighbors peacefully coexist and can also help guide us to solving neighborhood issues. As we anxiously look forward to spring and all of the good that it brings, now is a good time to review some of the Troutdale municipal codes that we customarily address during the spring and summer months.

TMC 8.28.070(15)

Prohibits obstruction to public sidewalks or roadways by trees, bushes, roots, other natural growth, soil or solid waste. This code applies to public property that is adjacent to private property. It is the adjacent homeowner's responsibility to maintain the public property that is adjacent to the homeowner's property. An example would be homes along 257th, whose backyard abuts 257th. The planting strip and easement along 257th is the adjacent homeowner's responsibility to maintain.

TMC 13.10.140

Limbs of trees may project over the sidewalk area at an elevation of not less than seven and one half feet above the sidewalk level, and over the street area at an elevation of not less than eleven feet above the street level. It is the homeowner's responsibility to keep tree limbs trimmed.

TMC 13.10.150(A)

Care and maintenance of street trees is the continuing responsibility of the adjacent property owner. The director may direct any property owner to plant, trim, prune, treat, maintain or remove street trees adjacent to his or her property when a nuisance condition is found to exist.

TMC 8.28.070(19)

Prohibits uncontrolled grass or weeds over 14". Besides detracting from the aesthetics of the neighborhood, this condition harbors rodents and vector (biting bugs with the capacity to transmit a disease or parasite) and can create an extreme fire danger that could threaten your home and neighboring properties.

Code Enforcement has the authority to issue citations in these cases. However, with the public's cooperation enforcement won't be necessary, and I can tend to the highest priority livability issues that have a greater impact on your safety. If you have questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at 503-491-4009, or by email at lisa.clayton@troutdaleoregon.gov.
